

Forging New Frontiers

Injury Free Coalition for Kids 15th Annual Conference

Making Communities Safe for Children and Their Families

November 12

Friday

3:00 - 6:00 Registration

3:00 - 6:00 Poster Set Up

6:00 - 7:00 Reception

7:00 - 9:00 Board Meeting

November 13

Saturday

7:00-8:00 Breakfast and Posters

8:00-8:15 Welcome Michael Hirsh, MD

8:15-8:20 Joseph Wright, MD introduces Carden Johnston, MD

8:20-9:00 Carden Johnston, MD Violence Prevention Keynote: Violence Prevention; Past, Present and Future

9:00-10:15 Violence Prevention Panel Moderator: Joseph Wright, MD

The role of the emergency department in youth violence prevention: a systematic review, Joseph Wright, MD

Guns for art – Goods for Guns comes full cycle, Michael Hirsh, MD

Connected Kids Implementation Projects: Lessons Learned, Rebecca Levin, MPH

Healthy Youth: Strong and Connected, Marlene Melzer-Lange,

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30- 12:00 Teen's Behind the Wheel Panel Moderator: Garry Lapidus

Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drug education, influence on self reported teenage driving behavior, Bridget Clementi

Impact of Connecticut's graduated driver licensing system on teenage motor vehicle crashes, Steve Rogers, MD

Post drivers education instruction is it effective and feasible?, Janice Williams

Developing a digital simulation of an ATV crash, Shane Eoff

12:00- 1:30 Lunch

1:30- 3:00 Motor Vehicle Occupant and Pedestrian Injuries Panel Moderator: Mindy Statter, MD

Targeting pediatric pedestrian injury prevention efforts: teasing the information through spatial analysis, Mindy Statter, MD

Protective and risk behaviors of children walking to school: do these behaviors differ when adults are present?, Dawn Marie Daniels, PhD, RN

Stages of change is predictive of response to brief intervention to improve motor vehicle safety practices for injured children at a level 1 trauma center, Peter F Ehrlich, MD

Restraint use law enforcement intervention in Latino communities, Judy Schaechter, MD

3:00 – 4:30 Injury Prevention Education Panel Moderator: Chris Vitale, MSN

Does physician counseling on injury prevention topics reflect self-reported injury prevention risks and injury incidence in young children?, Janice Williams

Health educators' and artists' collaboration yields innovative educational materials, Kira McGroarty Koon, MPH

On the road with injury prevention – an analysis of the efficacy of a mobile injury prevention exhibit, Mariann Manno, MD

Kohl's Safety Center in a safety store world, Christine Vitale MSN

6:00 Reception

7:00 Dinner Keynote Speaker: Cease Fire Founder and Executive Director Gary Slutkin, MD

November 14 Sunday

7:00-8:00 Breakfast and Posters

8:00-8:10 Dr. Hirsh introduces Keynote Sandro Galea, MD

8:10 – 9:00 Keynote: Disasters and mental health, Sandro Galea, MD

9:00- 10:15 Injury Prevention & Disasters Panel Moderator Michael Hirsh, MD

The New York City pediatric disaster coalition: a readily replicable model for multidisciplinary regional pediatric mass casualty planning, Art Cooper, MD

Pediatric Hospital Incident Command System (PHICS): innovative approach to hospital emergency management, Nathan Timm, MD

Creating a regional emergency preparedness training center using state and federal funding: one institution's experience, Mary-Elise Manuel, MD

Comprehensive pediatric disaster preparedness, Jeffrey Upperman, MD

Disaster preparedness: lessons from the bay area, James Betts, MD

10:15-11:45 New Topics Moderator: Joyce Pressley, PhD, MPH

Alcohol & drug misuse among injured caregiver/child groups, Karla A. Lawson, PhD, MPH

Injury-related hospital admissions of military dependents compared to similarly aged non-military insured infants, children and adolescents, Joyce C. Pressley, PhD, MPH

Preventing child and adolescent injuries in rural areas: using a "community of practice" model, Erica Streit-Kaplan, MPH, MSW

Behaviors of children ages 15 months to five years around microwave ovens, Marla Robinson, MSc, OTR/L

12:00 – 1:30 Lunch

1:30 – 2:30 Business Meeting

2:30 to 4:30 Injury Prevention and Sports Panel Moderator: Andrea Winthrop, MD

Falls among school-aged children (6-14 years) in an urban county, Andrea Winthrop, MD

Knowledge and management of sports concussions among middle and high school coaches in Alabama, Kimberly Gran

Motorized vehicles for recreation associated injuries in children presenting to the emergency department at children's hospital (dirt bikes, golf carts, go carts and scooters), Courtney Baxley, MD

Injury prevention preparedness in youth football and soccer coaches: are they prepared to identify and manage a potentially catastrophic injury?, Mary Beth Moran PT, MS, MEd

Concurrent Sessions

Grantee meeting for Translation of SBIRT to Pediatric Trauma Centers Project, Michael Mello, MD

Toys"R"Us Post Grant Meeting, E. Lenita Johnson, MA